From the President's Pen:

Dear Altrusans

I am finally back in the land of the living after experiencing the dreaded virus and coughing for a month. Still got a bit of a cough so I suppose it is what they call 'the ninety day cough'. Anyway the weather is warming up and I am more energised and getting out into the garden while the sun shines. Strawberries and my cherry tomato are planted now and the azaleas and rhododendrons are flowering have had their springtime feed of fertiliser. The tulips are coming out and the camellias are too so everything in the garden is 'blooming good'.

I was sorry to miss hearing the speaker at the last Business meeting but have been told that she was well received and interesting. My daughter, Leanne, escorted her to the meeting for me and handed out the '100 for 100' pins to the worthy recipients - good on you girls for all your hard work! Danae sent me a big box of knitting wool and I have been able to knit through my illness so the time wasn't completely wasted - 32 more beanies of varying colours.

I am looking forward to the IFF Day in Ashburton on 30th September. These are always good value for members and I urge everyone to consider carpooling together and enjoying a day out together, meeting new friends and catching up with old ones.

We have a busy few months leading up to Christmas this year so I am looking forward to getting together with you again and sharing in the fun when we fundraise and do service in our community.

Liz Luckett
President
